Holy Week

WHAT TO EXPECT FROM PALM SUNDAY THROUGH HOLY WEEK

Palm Sunday

Today's liturgy begins with a palm procession, commemorating Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Quickly the tone of the service changes as we meditate upon Jesus' passion and death. Because this story is so central to our faith, we hear Matthew's account of the passion today and John's version on Good Friday. Though Jesus is obedient even unto death on the cross, he is exalted by God. We gather to remember his offering for the life of the world, and to be fed by his life-giving mercy. This holy week will culminate in the celebration of the Three Days of Jesus' suffering, death, and resurrection.

Triduum (The Three Days)

Maundy Thursday

With nightfall our Lenten observance comes to an end, and we gather with Christians around the world to celebrate the Three Days of Jesus' death and resurrection. At the heart of the Maundy Thursday liturgy is Jesus' commandment to love one another. As Jesus washed the feet of his disciples, we are called to follow his example as we humbly care for one another, especially the poor and the unloved. At the Lord's table we remember Jesus' sacrifice of his life, even as we are called to offer ourselves in love for the life of the world.

Good Friday

At the heart of the Good Friday liturgy is the passion according to John, which proclaims Jesus as a triumphant king who reigns from the cross. The ancient title for this day—the triumph of the cross—reminds us that the church gathers not to mourn this day but to celebrate Christ's life-giving passion and to find strength and hope in the tree of life. In the ancient bidding prayer we offer petitions for all the world for whom Christ died. Today's liturgy culminates in the Easter Vigil tomorrow evening.

Easter Vigil

This is the night! This is our Passover with Christ from darkness to light, from bondage to freedom, from death to life. Tonight is the heart of our celebration of the Three Days and the pinnacle of the church's year. The resurrection of Christ is proclaimed in word and sign, and we gather around a pillar of fire, hear ancient stories of our faith, welcome new sisters and brothers at the font, and share the food and drink of the promised land. Raised with Christ, we go forth into the world, aflame with the good news of the resurrection.

Easter Sunday

On this day the Lord has acted! On the first day of the week God began creation, transforming darkness into light. On this, the "eighth day" of the week, Jesus Christ was raised from the dead. We celebrate this new creation in the waters of baptism and in the feast of victory. With great joy we celebrate this day of days, even as we begin the great fifty days of Easter. Filled with hope, we go forth to share the news that Christ is risen!

ALOHA FROM PASTOR DAVID

David Barber

Death has been swallowed up in victory...thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord, because you know that in the Lord your labor is not in vain. (I Corinthians 15:54b, 57-58)

It will soon be Easter but we have to make our way through several cemeteries before we get there. On the fifth Sunday of Lent, we have a story that is a foretaste of Easter and the resurrection – namely the rising of Lazarus. In addition, Ezekiel is privy to a vision where he is plopped down in a graveyard – surrounded by a valley of dry bones. In both of these stories we get a glimpse of what lies ahead. Jesus will do for his friend Lazarus what God will do for Jesus, and God will bring to life what is completely hopeless and irreversible.

From a human point of view, both Ezekiel and Lazarus illustrate for us the complete and utter hopelessness of their circumstances. We're not dealing here with some folks who have temporarily lost a pulse and are in need of a defibrillator. In Ezekiel's vision, bodies have not just died, they have decayed and deteriorated to the point where there's no flesh at all. There's no skin, no muscles, no tendons, no ligaments.

When Jesus heard that Lazarus was ill, he didn't go right away to Bethany. He stayed two days longer in the place where he was. He didn't arrive until Lazarus had been dead for four days. He missed the funeral altogether. The four days that Jesus waited are significant. Martha, the sister of Lazarus, is concerned that the body will stink because decay has already set in. What we have here is not just a CPR effort on the part of Jesus. It's not just a matter of beating some unfavorable odds like making the final, winning basket with one second left in the NCAA basketball tournament. All life is gone, and from our perspective, these situations are completely hopeless and irretrievable.

Both of these stories, along with Easter, promise us that there is an energy source loose in the universe that is stronger than death. It's even more potent than our fear of death. It's a power that calls us out of every stinking tomb that confronts us as well as all the big and little deaths that stare us in the face day after day. Our Lord comes with the promise of new life into every desperate, futile, and impossible situation. In every desolate and dried up area where our lives begin to stink and where our hope is completely lost, Jesus breathes into us his dynamic and vital breath.

"At this very moment," says Jesus, "I'm rolling away that immovable stone in front of the cave that entombs you. I'm calling you out from the stench of death into the fullness and sweet mystery of life. I'm calling you out by name! Come out! No matter what you have done or failed to do, come out from whatever entombs you. Come out," says Jesus, "into the abundance of hope and new life. I'm in the business of creating life where there is grief, fashioning love in the midst of loss, and generating hope where despair has overwhelmed you."

Like Lazarus and Ezekiel, we, too, are being called from the tombs we encounter to walk in the resurrection power of our Lord Jesus Christ. To be sure, there is much that fills us with sadness and disappointment. Despair and feelings of helplessness might be normal responses to the challenges that lie before us. However, the mind-boggling proclamation of the resurrection won't allow us to do this. Energized by the Holy Spirit, we are invited and sent to be witnesses and servants to the message of Easter. In every place of darkness, wherever people are entombed by death and enslaved by circumstances that keep them from living freely as children of God, we are commissioned to proclaim by our words and our actions: Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

A WORD FROM OUR PRESIDENT

“For it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted to them his property. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability... For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away.” (Matthew 25:15-30)

Many may remember this quotation; it is from the Parable of the Talents. Briefly, three individuals were judged on what they did with their master's money. The one given the most doubled the money; the one given the least hid the money out of fear and returned what he was given. The moral of the story for me is: be grateful for what God has entrusted to you and put it to good work for Him. I encourage you to read this parable – what do you think?

I bring this subject to your attention to provide some context for my response to some questions raised regarding the fact that we are considering enlarging our current loan and at the same time undergoing a fund raising campaign for work on the parsonage. What is the rationale? Couldn't the loan be used to pay for the additional work on the parsonage?

To be brief, at our last Congregational meeting we approved a project to repair and update the parsonage in anticipation of a new pastor. The Council was able to repurpose existing funds, which would cover much of the anticipated cost. Thus we are asking the members to help provide nearly $23,000. (To date we are still short $18,000). However, during the investigation as to how we might address our funding need, the Finance Committee considered the possibility of extending our mortgage. Our current mortgage will soon lose its 5-year reduced interest rate and be adjusted to a higher fixed rate for 20 years. If we were to increase the loan, the lender (Mission Investment Fund) would rewrite our current loan to include an additional $124,000.00 at a lower interest rate than our current loan for all money borrowed for another 5 years. Based on that potential short-term monetary savings coupled with some critical needs of our church buildings beyond the parsonage, we are continuing to investigate the possibility of a loan. Such a loan cannot be initiated without congregational approval. Should the congregation decide to pursue the loan, the Council would prefer to use these funds for any shortfall in regard to the parsonage fund appeal in addition to addressing other badly needed repairs and upgrades for our worship facility including the repair/replacement of our sliding glass doors, office upgrades, and other identified important needs.

Returning to our parable, we have been truly blessed by God, He has given much. What will be our response? Will we consider our buildings and our property as a gift from God to do ministry as well as an investment that God expects us to faithfully steward into the future? I look forward to our continued journey led by a loving, faithful and generous God.

With Warmest Aloha,

Mark Fornwall

CALL COMMITTEE UPDATE

CALL
COMMITTEE
UPDATE

Aloha from your Call Committee,

The Committee continues the work of finding a new pastor for Kihei Lutheran Church. We prayerfully ask God for patience and faith while we rest in the assurance that He has a plan for us.

We had a Skype interview with a second candidate last month, unfortunately that pastor accepted a call to another congregation before we could schedule a follow-up interview. The Synod office has sent us three additional candidate profiles. We will be conducting interviews with all three early in the coming weeks.

The ELCA call process allows for members of KLC (and visitors as well) to submit names for consideration. The "Pacifica Synod Pastoral Candidate Nomination Form" is on the next page in this newsletter. If you have suggestions, please submit the completed form to the Call Committee or directly to the Office of the Bishop. Eligible candidates must be on the ELCA clergy roster, approved seminary graduates, or from church bodies with which the ELCA is in full communion partnership. Members or friends of KLC may also make clergy aware of our opening and encourage consideration for their next call.

Dear KLC Congregation,

Thank you for the additional Christmas gift that was given to me at the end of last month. I continue to be amazed at the unbelievable generosity from all of you. The blessings that I have received, in what will be nine years of service in September, are too many to measure.

Know that I realize more and more how instrumental our Heavenly Father has been in His love for me and I am excited to see what He has in store for all of us at KLC. Have a blessed Easter season.

Beth

Dear KLC Ohana,

I don't mean to copy the words of Beth but I think I will. Thank you so much for the additional Christmas gift that was given to me at the end of last month. I continue to be so thankful for this Ohana and how you have extended your love and care towards me since the first day I started here. I consider it an incredible blessing to serve alongside you and thank God for this community I get to be a part of. Now on to the incredible season of Easter.

Mahalo nui for who you are~

With so much love & aloha,
Cate

A Mahalo from Joan Grotz

To all our friends at KLC,
Thank you for all your prayers and card for us. We really appreciated them. We really felt the love that KLC shares with one another.

God's Blessings
Joan Grotz and Family

Pacifica Synod Pastoral Candidate Nomination Form

Candidates must be on the ELCA clergy roster, approved seminary graduates or from church bodies with which we have a full communion partnership. The names will be submitted to the Office of the Bishop to be considered along with other potential candidates. If the candidate is on the clergy roster of another synod, the synod staff will need to obtain permission from that synod to be in contact with the candidate.

“TO HAVE AND TO HOLD” BOOK DISCUSSION

Joy Nelson and Pastor Barb would like to invite you to a book discussion, featuring the second in Pastor Barbara Edema's series about Pastor Maggie's impetuous, emotional escapades at a fictional church, filled with delightful characters. This one, "To Have and to Hold", is more of a mystery than the first. Barb is my husband's cousin and my great friend.

Many of you read her first book, "To Love and to Cherish", and attended the discussion, led by Pastor Barb. The discussion will again be at Sugar Beach Events, 85 N. Kihei Rd. The date is Sunday, April 23rd, from 11:30 to about 1:30. There will be a light lunch, mostly tea sandwiches, like last year.

I ordered 20 books, so if you would like one, I have them for sale at $16. Or you could go to Amazon, and get the Kindle version for $5. I can bring the books to church any time. Please RSVP to me, Joy, if you are interested in going to the discussion.

MOVIE/THEATER CLUB

Thanks to everyone who joined us in seeing "Dirty Rotten Scoundrels" at the IAO Theatre and all those who joined us for coffee, desert or lunch at the Outback Restaurant in Kihei after the play. Now, the Movie/Theatre Club will take a well deserved break and start looking forward to bringing you "9 to 5 the Musical" next July.

KEOLAHOU FOOD PANTRY

The first Sunday of the month is designated for donations of food/ personal items to be distributed to the Keolahou Food Pantry.

Boxed or canned suggested items could be: Protein Items such as Peanut Butter, Tuna, Spam or other canned meats. Chili, soups, canned vegetables or fruit. Boxed cereal, or oatmeal. Spaghetti/pasta items, mashed potatoes, rice, etc. Any items you care to give are always appreciated. These are merely suggestions from the Food Pantry volunteers. Personal items such as tooth brushes, tooth paste, shampoo & soap are always a welcome addition.

In this time of rising costs it is even more important to remember those who may have less than others. Please continue to support the Food Pantry in all they do to help our community neighbors.

In April we will be sending care packages to our college students. If you would like to contribute, please contact Bubba at brudow@hawaii.rr.com. I will need items by April 10th. Some suggestions are: gift cards (you don't need to get enough for everybody—if several people get a few that's perfect—we have 12 kids), your favorite bible verse, an inspirational message, a personal note, Hawaiian snacks, etc. If you are sending a message I can copy it for you, or if you have something in mind but are unable to shop, I will gladly get it for you. Thanks for being part of the important ministry—the kids love hearing from KLC!

"BAKING" A DIFFERENCE

It's hard to believe that I have been fighting my eating disorder for over a year now, and am still continuing to face those battles every day. Although it is not an experience anyone should have to go through, I am so grateful for all the support, love, and acceptance the KLC has shared with me. In addition, I am beyond proud to say that, thanks to you, I was able to send $1,553 to the National Eating Disorder's Association to help fund their organization continue to raise awareness of eating disorders, spreading hope and allowing sufferers to let their voice be heard, and find quality care for those who struggle to receive proper treatment.

If you ever have any questions, whether they may be personal or general, please don't hesitate to ask!
